

REGIONAL TRANSITION

NAVIGATOR SERVICES

Know somebody finding their way into adulthood?
Maybe we can help!

Regional Transition Navigator Services (RTNS) works with individuals aged 14-25 who have experienced or are at risk of experiencing severe mental illness, severe emotional disturbance or substance use disorder.

RTNS emphasizes working with individuals who are unhoused or at risk of becoming unhoused, who are aging out of foster care or juvenile detention, or who are at risk of human trafficking.

Anyone can refer to RTNS.
Scan the QR code below to make a referral.

RTNS is free for participants.

About RTNS

RTNS seeks to work with individuals one-on-one to pursue identified needs and overcome accompanying challenges. This can include assistance with the following:

- Life skills evaluation
- Access to housing, transportation, utilities and food
- Access to health care, medication, and mental health services
- Self-advocacy
- Education
- Work readiness
- Other identified needs

For more information

Visit us here:
rtn.cedwvu.org

Call us here:
844-274-8683

The Regional Transition Navigator Services program is funded through grants funded by the WV Department of Human Services, Bureau for Behavioral Health. 2024 West Virginia University. WVU is an EEO/Affirmative Action employer — Minority/Female/ Disability/Veteran. Alternate formats available upon request.